Re: Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection v. Forster & Garbus, LLP
U.S.D.C. Case No. 2:19-cv-02928-SJF-ARL

Dear Judge Feuerstein:

This letter serves a supplement to the Defendant's, Forster & Garbus, LLP ("F&G") letter to the court filed yesterday. (ECF No. 30)

This afternoon the United States Supreme Court granted certiorari in the case of Collins v. Mnuchin, 938 F.3d 553 (5th Cir. 2019) on the following questions:

- (1) Whether the Federal Housing Finance Agency's structure violates the separation of powers; and
- (2) whether the court must set aside a final agency action that FHFA took when it was unconstitutionally structured and strike down the statutory provisions that make FHFA independent. [Emphasis added].

F&G reiterates its position that the parties be able to brief their respective positions with regard to whether this case should be re-opened as well as allow briefing on the issue of a stay of proceedings pending a decision by the Supreme Court with regard to the appropriate remedy in light of the constitutional violations.

Thank you for your attention to this matter

Hon. Sandra J. Feuerstein, U.S.D.J.
